

1 for occupation, unless explicitly authorized by a declara-
2 tion of war or specific authorization for use of military
3 force against Iran.

4 (b) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in this sec-
5 tion may be construed to—

6 (1) prevent the United States from defending
7 itself, its Armed Forces, its diplomatic facilities, or 8 allied states from imminent attack;

9 (2) prevent the United States Armed Forces
10 from maintaining a troop presence in the region for 11 defensive purposes; or

12 (3) force the removal of United States Armed
13 Forces in the region who are not engaged in hos-
14 tilities against Iran.

15 RULE OF CONSTRUCTION RELATING TO INTELLIGENCE

16 SHARING

17 SEC. 2.

18 Nothing in this resolution may be construed to influ-
19 ence or disrupt any intelligence, counterintelligence, or in-
20 vestigative activities relating to threats in or emanating
21 from Iran or surrounding countries conducted by, or in
22 conjunction with, the United States Government involv-
23 ing—

24 (1) the collection of intelligence;

25 (2) the analysis of intelligence; or

1           (3) the sharing of intelligence between the
2           United States and any coalition partner, if the
3           President determines such sharing is appropriate
4           and in the national security interests of the United
5           States.

6                   RULE OF CONSTRUCTION RELATING TO
7           NONAUTHORIZATION OF THE USE OF MILITARY FORCE
8           SEC. 3.

9           Consistent with section 8(a)(1) of the War Powers
10          Resolution (50 U.S.C. 1547(a)(1)), nothing in this concur-
11          rent resolution may be construed as authorizing the use
12          of military force.
