CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Expressing support for the Federal Protective Service and its law enforcement officers.

Whereas the Federal Protective Service (hereinafter referred to as “FPS”) is charged with protecting more than 8,500 Federal facilities, ensuring the safety of Federal employees, contractors, and visitors across the United States;

Whereas FPS law enforcement officers work tirelessly to uphold the rule of law, safeguard critical infrastructure, and defend the United States against threats;

Whereas FPS law enforcement officers selflessly put themselves in harm’s way to deter and respond to criminal activity, terrorism, and emergencies at Federal properties;

Whereas FPS law enforcement officers take an oath to uphold the Constitution and never betray the public trust;

Whereas FPS law enforcement officers are recognized for their public service, professionalism, and commitment to protecting the Federal workforce and United States citizens;

Whereas FPS law enforcement officers routinely face dangerous and complex situations in the course of their duties, including responding to threats and civil protests, conducting security assessments, and collaborating with other Federal, State, and local partners;

Whereas a healthy and collaborative relationship between FPS law enforcement officers and the communities they serve, including Federal employees and visitors, is essential to fostering mutual respect, trust, and awareness of FPS's critical mission; and

Whereas FPS law enforcement officers and their families deserve respect, appreciation, and support for their sacrifices and commitment to public service: Now, therefore, be it
