1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

1 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

2 This Act may be cited as the “Strengthening the 3 Quad Act”.

4 SEC. 2. SENSE OF CONGRESS.

5 It is the sense of Congress that—

6 (1) as a Pacific power, the United States should 7 continue to strengthen joint cooperation between the 8 United States, Australia, India, and Japan (com-9 monly referred to as the “Quadrilateral Dialogue” or 10 “Quad” and referred to as such in this Act) to en-
11 hance and implement a shared vision to meet re-
12 gional challenges and to promote a free, open, inclu-
13 sive, resilient, and healthy Indo-Pacific, that is char-14 acterized by respect for democratic norms, rule of 15 law, and market-driven economic growth, and is free
16 from undue influence and coercion;

17 (2) the United States should expand dialogue
18 and cooperation through the Quad with a range of 19 partners to support peace and prosperity, the rule of 20 law, freedom of navigation and overflight, the peace-
21 ful resolution of disputes, and democratic resilience
22 in the Indo-Pacific;

23 (3) the pledge from the first-ever Quad leaders
24 meeting on March 12, 2021, to address shared chal-
25 lenges, including in public health, cyberspace, critical
26 technologies, counterterrorism, quality infrastructure

1 investment, and humanitarian assistance and dis-
2 aster relief, as well as maritime domains, laid the 3 foundation for critical cooperation among Quad
4 countries;

5 (4) the Quad countries, working through insti-
6 tutions, including the United States International
7 Development Finance Corporation, the Japan Inter-
8 national Cooperation Agency, and the Japan Bank
9 for International Cooperation, and through partner-10 ships with multilateral development banks such as 11 the World Bank and the Asian Development Bank,
12 should finance development and infrastructure
13 projects in the Indo-Pacific region that are competi-
14 tive, transparent, and sustainable;

15 (5) President Biden's decision to elevate the 16 Quad to the leader level was critical to bolstering co-17 operation, and all 4 countries should work to ensure 18 that the Quad Leaders' Summit continues to take 19 place regularly;

20 (6) the ambitious framework for ongoing co-
21 operation laid out by the 4 leaders at the fifth con-
22 vening of the Quad Leaders' Summit in Hiroshima
23 on May 20, 2023, should continue;

24 (7) Secretary of State Marco Rubio hosted the 25 Quad Foreign Ministers in Washington, DC on Jan-

1 uary 21, 2025—his first day in office—underscoring
2 the continued importance of cooperation between the 3 4 democracies; and

4 (8) the formation of a Quad Inter-Parliamen-
5 tary Working Group will—

6 (A) sustain and deepen engagement be-7 tween senior officials of the Quad countries on 8 a full spectrum of issues; and

9 (B) be modeled on the successful and long-
10 standing bilateral inter-parliamentary groups
11 between the United States and Mexico, Canada, 12 and the United Kingdom, as well as other for-13 mal and informal parliamentary exchanges.
