

119TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. 3163

To amend title 10, United States Code, to define the purpose, role, duties, and professional qualification requirements for chaplains in the Armed Forces, and for other purposes.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MAY 1, 2025

Mr. SELF (for himself and Mr. LUTTRELL) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Armed Services

A BILL

To amend title 10, United States Code, to define the purpose, role, duties, and professional qualification requirements for chaplains in the Armed Forces, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Military Chaplains Act 5 of 2025”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 Congress finds the following:

1 (1) Religion and religious liberty have always 2 served an essential role in society, culture, and mili-
3 tary service, making them necessary for good demo-4 cratic governance and a strong military.

5 (2) George Washington, as a young colonel, rec-6 ognized the importance of religious practice for his 7 soldiers, repeatedly requesting chaplains for his 8 troops and periodically performing religious duties 9 himself when his superiors refused.

10 (3) When the Continental Congress established
11 the Continental Army, it recommended “all officers 12 and soldiers diligently to attend Divine Service.”

13 (4) John Adams instructed his Secretary of the 14 Navy on the influence of a Navy chaplaincy, stating 15 “I know not whether the commanders of our ships 16 have given much attention to this subject [chap-17 lains], but in my humble opinion, we shall be very 18 unskillful politicians as well as bad Christians and 19 unwise men if we neglect this important office in our 20 infant Navy.”

21 (5) In 1775, the Continental Congress under-22 standing the significance of chaplaincy, similarly in-23 structed its fledgling navy that “commanders of the 24 ships of the Thirteen Colonies are to take care that

1 divine services be performed twice a day on board,
2 and a sermon preached on Sunday.”

3 (6) In 1942, Franklin D. Roosevelt also ac-4 knowledged the importance of the chaplaincy by 5 vowing to “never fail to provide for the spiritual 6 needs of our officers and men”, and during World 7 War II, President Roosevelt had Bibles printed and 8 provided to troops in the field.

9 (7) Understanding the importance of religion
10 not only to the members of the United States mili-11 tary, but also to the United States as a whole, the 12 Founders ratified the First Amendment to the 13 United States Constitution in 1791.

14 (8) Being applicable to the Armed Forces the 15 First Amendment states: “Congress shall make no 16 law respecting an establishment of religion, or pro-17 hibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the 18 freedom of speech, or of the right of the people to 19 peaceably assemble, and to petition the Government 20 from a redress of grievances.”

21 (9) The Supreme Court has stated that there is 22 “no historically sound understanding of the Estab-23 lishment Clause that begins to make it necessary for 24 government to be hostile to religion.” (Kennedy v.
25 Bremerton School District (2022)).

1 (1) CHAPLAIN CORPS AND CHIEF OF CHAP-
2 LAINS.—Section 7073 of title 10, United States
3 Code, is amended by adding at the end the fol-
4 lowing:

5 “(c) The Chief of Chaplains shall serve as an adviser
6 to the Secretary of the Army.

7 “(d) The Army Chaplaincy shall provide the following 8 and shall be overseen by the Office of the Chief of Chap-9 lains:

10 “(1) Advise and assist commanders in dis-
11 charging their responsibilities to provide free exer-12 cise of religion in military service, pursuant to the 13 First Amendment of the United States Constitution, 14 section 2000bb–1 of title 42, United States Code, 15 and related statutes and policies.

16 “(2) Serve as principal advisers to commanders 17 on all issues concerning religious practices, spiritual 18 readiness, religious provisions and religion’s influ-19 ence on military operations.

20 “(3) Assist commanders in managing religious 21 affairs, including the accommodation of religious 22 practices and the development of policies and proce-23 dures related to the free exercise of religion.

1 “(4) Oversee education and training programs
2 concerning the accommodation of religious practices
3 for service members.

4 “(5) Provide guidance on the qualifications and 5 requirements for religious-endorsing organizations 6 submitting candidates for military chaplaincy.

7 “(6) Evaluate requests for the accommodation 8 of religious practices and advise commanders on 9 their approval or denial.

10 “(7) Advise and assist commanders in address-11 ing crisis and suicide prevention initiatives.”.

12 (2) CHAPLAIN.—Section 7217 of title 10,
13 United States Code, is amended to read as follows:

14 “§ 7217. Duties, responsibilities, requirements, and 15 protections for chaplains in the Army

16 “(a) DUTIES, RESPONSIBILITIES AND REQUIRE-
17 MENTS.—

18 “(1) A chaplain in the Army shall do the fol-
19 lowing:

20 “(A) Meet the religious requirements and 21 care for the spiritual needs of service members, 22 other authorized persons and their dependents.

23 “(B) Assist Armed Services Commanders
24 by serving as an adviser to all religious accom-25 modation requests and by providing advice on

1 spiritual readiness, and matters concerning reli-
2 gion, morals, ethics, well-being, and morale.

3 “(C) Have a primary role in providing for 4 the free exercise of religion and other religious 5 requirements associated with the free exercise 6 of religion.

7 “(D) Personally meet the religious require-8 ments of persons in their assigned military 9 units, potentially in isolated or combat environ-
10 ments.

11 “(E) Conduct religious ministry activities
12 consistent with the tenets of their religious-en-13 dorsing organizations.

14 “(F) Advise Combatant Commands, com-
15 manding officers, and organizations, as appro-16 priate, on religion, morals, ethics, well-being, 17 morale, and spiritual readiness in the unit, in-18 cluding religion’s impact on military operations.

19 “(G) Facilitate meeting the religious needs 20 and requirements for those persons to whom 21 they cannot directly minister.

22 “(H) Maintain confidentiality of privileged 23 communications.

1 “(2) In carrying out subparagraph (G) of para-
2 graph (1), a chaplain in the Army may do the fol-
3 lowing:

4 “(A) Connect the person with a different
5 chaplain, or a chaplain of the person’s faith, 6 who can directly provide for their needs.

7 “(B) Equip the person with the tools or 8 materials necessary to meet their own needs.

9 “(C) Coordinate the appointment of faith
10 group-specific religious lay leaders.

11 “(D) Offer information on how to draw
12 from local, civilian, or other resources.

13 “(3) The tasks of a chaplain in the Army may 14 include, but are not limited to, the following:

15 “(A) Performing rites, rituals, ordinances, 16 and ceremonies.

17 “(B) Visiting workspaces.

18 “(C) Counseling, meeting, advising and 19 praying with individuals or groups.

20 “(D) Providing crisis prevention and re-21 sponse.

22 “(E) Conducting religious services, cere-23 monies, and observances (e.g., memorials, wed-24 dings, retirements, sermons, worship, burials).

1 “(F) Providing spiritual ministrations and 2 activities.

3 “(G) Advising on religious accommodation 4 requests.

5 “(H) Providing religious training and edu-6 cation.

7 “(b) PROTECTIONS.—

8 “(1) A chaplain’s responsibilities and require-9 ments, as outlined in subsection (a), must be con-
10 ducted in a manner consistent with the chaplain’s 11 sincerely held religious beliefs and tenets of their re-12 ligious-endorsing organization.

13 “(2) Chaplains shall have the right to conduct 14 public worship, provide counseling, teach, deliver ser-
15 mons, advise, minister, and offer prayer in accord-16 ance with the chaplain’s sincerely held religious be-17 liefs and tenets of their religious-endorsing organiza-
18 tion. These activities must be free from censorship, 19 undue restriction, or fear of retribution.

20 “(3) No member of the Armed Forces may—

21 “(A) require or assign a chaplain to per-22 form any rite, ritual, ceremony, procedure, ser-23 mon, speech, or other task or action contrary to 24 the sincerely held religious beliefs of the chap-

1 lain, or to the tenets of their religious-endorsing 2 organization; or

3 “(B) retaliate, discriminate or take any ad-4 verse personnel action against a chaplain, in-5 cluding denial of promotion, schooling, training, 6 assignment, or financial recoupment; issuance 7 of letters of reprimand; or any other adverse ac-8 tions or entries in their record, based on the 9 chaplain’s refusal to comply with a requirement 10 prohibited under subsection (b).

11 “(4) Chaplains must uphold their duty to pro-12 tect confidential, sacramental, and privileged com-
13 munications, including those recognized under appli-14 cable laws and policies.

15 “(c) ASSISTANCE BY COMMANDING OFFICERS.—
16 Each officer shall furnish facilities, including necessary
17 transportation, to any chaplain assigned to the command 18 of the officer, to assist the chaplain in performing the du-19 ties, responsibilities, and requirements of the chaplain.

20 “(d) DEFINITIONS.—For the purposes of this section:

21 “(1) ADVERSE PERSONNEL ACTION.—The term
22 ‘adverse personnel action’ means any action taken 23 against a service member that affects or has the po-24 tential to affect their current position or career, in-25 cluding promotion, disciplinary actions, transfers,

11 tions of the chaplain’s religious-endorsing orga-12 nization and the educational requirements of 13 the Department of Defense and the commis-14 sioning Armed Service; and

15 “(B) is appointed as both an officer in the 16 Chaplain Corps of the Armed Services and a
17 representative of the chaplain’s religious-endors-
18 ing organization to which the chaplain remains
19 accountable for providing religious ministry to 20 the Armed Services.

21 “(4) CONFIDENTIAL, SACRAMENTAL, AND PRIV-
22 ILEGED COMMUNICATIONS.—The term ‘confidential,
23 sacramental, and privileged communications’ means
24 private communications made during either religious
25 sacraments or religious practice, which are protected

1 from being disclosed unless the individual gives the
2 chaplain express permission.

3 “(5) RELIGIOUS-ENDORSING ORGANIZATION.—

4 The term ‘religious-endorsing organization’ means
5 an entity that—

6 “(A) is organized and functions primarily
7 to perform religious ministries to non-military
8 lay members and meets the requirements of the 9 Department of Defense and the commissioning
10 Armed Service; and

11 “(B) possesses ecclesiastical authority to
12 endorse and withdraw endorsement for chap-
13 lains serving under the authority of such entity
14 to conduct religious observances or ceremonies
15 in a military context.”.

16 (b) NAVY.—

17 (1) CHAPLAIN CORPS AND CHIEF OF CHAP-
18 LAINS.—Section 8082 of title 10, United States

23 “(B) is appointed as both an officer in the
24 Chaplain Corps of the Armed Services and a
25 representative of the chaplain’s religious-endors-

1 ing organization to which the chaplain remains
2 accountable for providing religious ministry to
3 the Armed Services.

4 “(4) CONFIDENTIAL, SACRAMENTAL, AND PRIV-
5 ILEGED COMMUNICATIONS.—The term ‘confidential,
6 sacramental, and privileged communications’ means
7 private communications made during either religious
8 sacraments or religious practice, which are protected
9 from being disclosed unless the individual gives the 10 chaplain express permission.

11 “(5) RELIGIOUS-ENDORSING ORGANIZATION.—
12 The term ‘religious-endorsing organization’ means
13 an entity that—

14 “(A) is organized and functions primarily
15 to perform religious ministries to non-military
16 lay members and meets the requirements of the 17 Department of Defense and the commissioning
18 Armed Service; and

19 “(B) possesses ecclesiastical authority to
20 endorse and withdraw endorsement for chap-
21 lains serving under the authority of such entity
22 to conduct religious observances or ceremonies
23 in a military context.”.

24 (d) EFFECT OF VIOLATIONS.—A member of the 25 Armed Forces who violates the policy required under sec-

1 tion 7217(b), 8221(b), or 9217(b) of title 10, United 2 States Code, shall be subject to prosecution under section 3 934 of such title (article 134 of the Uniform Code of Military 4 Justice). Not later than one year after the date of 5 the enactment of this section, the President shall—

6 (1) prescribe regulations establishing that a vio-7 lation of section 7217(b), 8221(b), or 9217(b) of 8 title 10, United States Code, constitutes an offense 9 punishable under section 934 of such title (article 10 134 of the Uniform Code of Military Justice); and 11 (2) revise the Manual for Court-Martial to in-12 clude such offenses.

13 (e) REGULATIONS.—The Secretary of Defense shall 14 issue regulations consistent with this section.

15 (f) CONFORMING AMENDMENTS.—

16 (1) EXISTING PROTECTIONS FOR CHAPLAINS.—
17 Section 533 of the National Defense Authorization
18 Act for Fiscal Year 2013 (Public Law 112–239; 10 19 U.S.C. prec. 1030 note) is amended—

20 (A) in the section heading, by striking
21 “AND CHAPLAINS OF SUCH MEMBERS”;

22 (B) by striking subsection (b); and

23 (C) by redesignating subsection (c) as sub-24 section (b).

1 (2) PROFESSIONAL FUNCTIONS OF THE AIR
2 FORCE.—Subsection (h) of section 9063 of title 10, 3 United States Code, is amended by adding “in ac-4 cordance with section 9217(a)” after “Secretary”.
