17 “(3) REDELEGATION OF AUTHORITY.—The 18 Secretary may delegate, or authorize successive re-
19 delegation of, authority to the Assistant Secretary
20 for Sanctions Policy to act and to render decisions, 21 with respect to all sanctions policies administered by 22 the Department. Within the limitations of such dele-
23 gations, redelegations, or assignments, all official
24 acts and decisions by the Assistant Secretary for

1 Sanctions Policy shall have the same force and effect
2 as though performed or rendered by the Secretary.

3 “(4) FIRST APPOINTMENT.—On the date of the 4 enactment of this Act, the individual serving before
5 such date of enactment as the Coordinator for Sanc-
6 tions shall be the Assistant Secretary for Sanctions
7 Policy. Any subsequent appointment of an individual
8 to the position of Assistant Secretary for Sanctions
9 Policy shall be subject to the advice and consent of 10 the Senate.

11 “(5) ESTABLISHMENT.—The Secretary shall es-
12 tablish a Bureau of Sanctions Policy, which shall 13 perform such functions related to the development of 14 policies governing the imposition of sanctions and 15 sanctions strategies, as the Under Secretary of State
16 for Economic Growth, Energy, and the Environment
17 may prescribe.

18 “(6) ASSISTANT SECRETARY.—The Assistant
19 Secretary for Sanctions Policy shall be the head of 20 the Bureau of Sanctions Policy.”.

11 have responsibility for engaging with for-
12 eign countries.

13 “(v) Advancing sports diplomacy with 14 foreign countries and entities.

15 “(vi) Implementing programs to co-
16 operate with foreign governments and enti-
17 ties on policy priorities or managing shared
18 resources.

19 “(vii) Understanding the local impli-
20 cations of foreign policy developments or 21 policy changes.

22 “(E) Supporting the economic interests of 23 the United States through subnational engage-24 ments, in consultation and coordination with 25 other relevant agencies.

1 “(F) Advising and informing local officials
2 as they negotiate agreements and memoranda
3 of understanding with foreign governments re-
4 lated to subnational engagements and priorities.

5 “(G) Coordinating subnational engage-
6 ments with associations of subnational elected
7 leaders, including the United States Conference
8 of Mayors, National Governors Association, Na-
9 tional League of Cities and similar associations.

10 “(H) Performing other such duties as the 11 Assistant Secretary for Economic and Business
12 Affairs and the Under Secretary of State for 13 Economic Growth, Energy, and the Environ-
14 ment may from time to time designate.

15 “(4) LOCATION.—The Office of Subnational Di-
16 plomacy shall be co-located with the Office of For-
17 eign Missions—Los Angeles, authorized under sec-
18 tion 203(4) of the State Department Basic Authori-
19 ties Act of 1956 (22 U.S.C. 4303(4)).”.

11 tion, and implementation of international
12 policies aimed at protecting and advancing
13 United States energy interests.

14 “(iii) Effectively managing United
15 States bilateral and multilateral relations
16 and, as directed by the Secretary, rep-
17 resenting the Secretary in relevant inter-
18 national fora and organizations, including
19 the International Energy Agency, to bol-
20 ster global energy security and advance the 21 interests of the United States.

22 “(iv) Ensuring that analyses of the 23 national security and economic security im-
24 plications of global energy developments

1 are reflected in the decision-making proc-
2 esses within the Department.

3 “(v) Incorporating energy and critical
4 mineral security priorities into the activi-
5 ties of the Department.

6 “(vi) Coordinating energy activities of 7 the Department with relevant Federal de-
8 partments and agencies, including the De-
9 partments of Energy, Commerce, Defense,
10 and Interior, and the Development Finance
11 Corporation to promote United States en-
12 ergy security and energy development to 13 support United States national security
14 readiness.

15 “(vii) Coordinating with the Bureau
16 of Sanctions Policy on economic sanctions
17 pertaining to the international energy sec-
18 tor.

19 “(viii) Coordinating energy security
20 and other relevant functions within the De-
21 partment currently undertaken by—

22 “(I) the Bureau of Economic and 23 Business Affairs;

24 “(II) the Bureau of Water, Envi-
25 ronment, and Space Affairs;
