H. R. 5548

To amend the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 to prohibit the President from providing assistance to the government of any country that has failed to extradite an individual that has been convicted of committing fraud against the United States or that has failed to take all appropriate measures with respect to assisting the recoupment of those funds.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

SEPTEMBER 23, 2025

Mr. FINSTAD introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs

A BILL

To amend the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 to prohibit the President from providing assistance to the government of any country that has failed to extradite an individual that has been convicted of committing fraud against the United States or that has failed to take all appropriate measures with respect to assisting the recoupment of those funds.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Fraud Accountability
5 and Recovery Act”.

1 SEC. 2. PROHIBITION ON ASSISTANCE.

2 Section 620 of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961
3 (22 U.S.C. 2370) is amended by adding at the end the 4 following new subsection:

5 “(z) No assistance shall be furnished under this Act
6 to the government of any country the President deter-
7 mines—

8 “(1) has failed to extradite an individual con-
9 victed of committing fraud against the United States
10 or benefitting from the proceeds of defrauding the 11 United States; or

12 “(2) has failed to take all appropriate legal, ad-
13 ministrative, or enforcement measures to assist in
14 the recoupment of Federal funds fraudulently stolen
15 from the United States by identifying, freezing, seiz-
16 ing, and repatriating the funds so fraudulently ob-
17 tained.”.

18 SEC. 3. FINDINGS.

19 Congress finds the following:

20 (1) According to the Government Accountability
21 Office, the Federal Government lost between
22 $233,000,000,000 and $521,000,000,000 annually
23 to fraud from fiscal years 2018 through 2022.

24 (2) The range reflects the varying risk environ-
25 ments for fraud—ninety percent of the estimated
26 fraud losses fell in this range.

1 (3) In Minnesota, the nonprofit organization
2 Feeding Our Future and associated individuals car-
3 ried out the largest COVID–19 pandemic fraud
4 scheme in the United States, stealing over
5 $250,000,000 intended to feed hungry children.

6 (4) The Department of Justice has charged 75
7 defendants in the fraud scheme, and Federal pros-
8 ecutors have secured multiple convictions against
9 participants in this scheme, which involved the sub-
10 mission of false reimbursement claims, the creation
11 of fictitious meal sites, and the laundering of Fed-
12 eral funds through shell entities and fraudulent in-
13 voices.

14 (5) Charges and convictions in the Feeding Our 15 Future scheme include—

- 16 (A) wire fraud;
- 17 (B) conspiracy to commit wire fraud;
- 18 (C) theft of government funds;
- 19 (D) conspiracy to defraud the United 20 States;
- 21 (E) Federal program bribery;
- 22 (F) money laundering; and
- 23 (G) engaging in monetary transactions
24 with criminally derived property.

1 (6) Some of the proceeds of this fraud were
2 used to purchase luxury real estate and vehicles, and
3 at least one defendant transferred funds and prop-
4 erty abroad, including to Kenya, beyond the reach of 5 United States authorities.

6 SEC. 4. SENSE OF CONGRESS.

7 It is the sense of Congress as follows:

8 (1) The United States lacks adequate tools to 9 ensure the recovery of stolen taxpayer funds and
10 property transferred overseas, leaving American tax-
11 payers without recourse when foreign jurisdictions
12 fail to cooperate.

13 (2) Strengthening program integrity, recouping
14 stolen funds, and preventing individuals convicted of 15 defrauding Federal programs from seeking inter-
16 national harbor are essential to safeguarding tax-
17 payer dollars and ensuring programs assist those
18 that Congress intended.

19 (3) Providing additional deterrence by ensuring 20 potential fraudsters lack a safe harbor abroad is 21 critical to preventing future fraud schemes.

22 SEC. 5. WAIVER.

23 (a) IN GENERAL.—The President may waive the limi-
24 tation under section 620(z) of the Foreign Assistance Act
25 of 1961, as added by section 2, if the President certifies

1 to Congress that prohibiting such assistance is contrary
2 to the national security of the United States.

3 (b) PRIOR NOTIFICATION.—Not later than 15 days
4 before the entry into effect of a waiver under subsection
5 (a), the President shall submit to the Committee on For-
6 eign Affairs of the House of Representatives and the Com-
7 mittee on Foreign Relations of the Senate a notification
8 of intent to issue such a waiver, along with a justification.

9 SEC. 6. REPORT ON NONCOMPLIANT COUNTRIES.

10 Not later than 180 days after the date of enactment
11 of this Act, and annually thereafter, the Secretary of State
12 shall submit to the Committee on Foreign Affairs of the 13 House of Representatives and the Committee on Foreign 14 Relations of the Senate a report that—

15 (1) lists each country the President determines
16 has failed to take all appropriate legal, administra-
17 tive, or enforcement measures as described in section
18 620(z)(2) of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 (as 19 added by section 2); and

20 (2) describes the total amount of fraudulently
21 obtained funds and court-ordered remedies, such as
22 recoveries, restitution, or fines, along with seizures
23 and forfeitures from the United States attributable

- 1 to the failure to take all such measures by each such
- 2 country.
