TITLE V—SEVERABILITY

1 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

2 Congress finds the following:

3 (1) Campaign finance disclosure is a narrowly
 4 tailored and minimally restrictive means to advance 5 substantial government interests, including fostering 6 an informed electorate capable of engaging in self-7 government and holding their elected officials ac-
 8 countable, detecting and deterring quid pro quo cor-
 9 ruption, and identifying information necessary to en-
 10 force other campaign finance laws, including cam-11 paign contribution limits and the prohibition on for-

1        eign money in U.S. campaigns. To further these 2        substantial interests, campaign finance disclosure 3        must be timely and complete, and must disclose the 4        true and original source of money given, transferred,
5        and spent to influence Federal elections. Current law
6        does not meet this objective because corporations 7        and other entities that the Supreme Court has per-8        mitted to spend money to influence Federal elections 9        are subject to few if any transparency requirements.

10        (2) As the Supreme Court recognized in its per-11        curiam opinion in Buckley v. Valeo, 424 U.S. 1, 12        (1976), “disclosure requirements certainly in most 13        applications appear to be the least restrictive means 14        of curbing the evils of campaign ignorance and cor-
15        ruption that Congress found to exist.” Buckley, 424
16        U.S. at 68. In Citizens United v. FEC, the Court re-17        iterated that “disclosure is a less restrictive alter-18        native to more comprehensive regulations of speech.”
19        558 U.S. 310, 369 (2010).

20        (3) No subsequent decision has called these 21        holdings into question, including the Court’s decision
22        in Americans for Prosperity Foundation v. Bonta, 23        141 S. Ct. 2373 (2021). That case did not involve 24        campaign finance disclosure, and the Court did not

1        overturn its longstanding recognition of the substan-
2        tial interests furthered by such disclosure.

3            (4) Campaign finance disclosure is also essen-
4        tial to enforce the Federal Election Campaign Act’s 5        prohibition on contributions by and solicitations of 6        foreign nationals. See section 319 of the Federal 7        Election Campaign Act of 1971 (52 U.S.C. 30121).

8            (5) Congress should close loopholes allowing 9        spending by foreign nationals in domestic elections.
10       For example, in 2021, the Federal Election Commis-11       sion, the independent Federal agency charged with 12       protecting the integrity of the Federal campaign fi-
13       nance process, found reason to believe and concil-
14       iated a matter where an experienced political con-
15       sultant knowingly and willfully violated Federal law 16       by soliciting a contribution from a foreign national 17       by offering to transmit a $2,000,000 contribution to 18       a super PAC through his company and two 19       501(c)(4) organizations, to conceal the origin of the 20       funds. This scheme was only unveiled after appear-21       ing in a The Telegraph UK article and video cap-
22       turing the solicitation. See Conciliation Agreement, 23       MURs 7165 & 7196 (Great America PAC, et al.),
24       date June 28, 2021; Factual and Legal Analysis,

1 MURs 7165 & 7196 (Jesse Benton), dated Mar. 2, 2 2021.

4 is established for the purpose of accepting such do-

6 and accessible to the Comptroller General.

8 graph (1), the term “applicable date” means—

20 ganization required to make the report required 21 under section 324(a)(1) of such Act (as added by 22 subsection (a));

23 (2) shall require reapplication for such exemp-
24 tion every 4 years;

1           (3) shall provide that applications for such ex-
2           emption, and documents reflecting the Federal Elec-
3           tion Commission’s consideration thereof, with appro-
4           priate redactions necessary to protect the personal 5           information of any person or persons to whom such 6           exemption applies, be published or made available 7           for public inspection; and 8           (4) shall be consistent with the principles ap-9           plied in Citizens United v. Federal Election Commis-

10          sion, 558 U.S. 310 (2010).

11 SEC. 202. REPORTING OF FEDERAL JUDICIAL NOMINATION

12                           DISBURSEMENTS.

13          (a) FINDINGS.—Congress makes the following find-14          ings:

15               (1) A fair and impartial judiciary is critical for 16               our democracy and crucial to maintain the faith of 17               the people of the United States in the justice sys-18               tem. As the Supreme Court held in Caperton v.
19               Massey, “there is a serious risk of actual bias—20               based on objective and reasonable perceptions—21               when a person with a personal stake in a particular 22               case had a significant and disproportionate influence 23               in placing the judge on the case.” (Caperton v. A.T.
24               Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868, 884 (2009)).

1           (2) Public trust in government is at a historic 2 low. According to polling, most Americans believe 3 that corporations have too much power and influence 4 in politics and the courts.

5           (3) The prevalence and pervasiveness of dark
6 money drives public concern about corruption in pol-7 itics and the courts. Dark money is funding for or-8 ganizations and political activities that cannot be 9 traced to actual donors. It is made possible by loop-
10 holes in our tax laws and regulations, weak oversight
11 by the Internal Revenue Service, and donor-friendly 12 court decisions.

13           (4) Under current law, “social welfare” organi-14 zations and business leagues can use funds to influ-15 ence elections so long as political activity is not their 16 “primary” activity. Super PACs can accept and 17 spend unlimited contributions from any non-foreign 18 source. These groups can spend tens of millions of 19 dollars on political activities. Such dark money 20 groups spent an estimated $1,050,000,000 in the 21 2020 election cycle.

22           (5) Dark money is used to shape judicial deci-23 sion making. This can take many forms, akin to 24 agency capture: influencing judicial selection by con-
25 trolling who gets nominated and funding candidate

1 advertisements; creating public relations campaigns
2 aimed at mobilizing the judiciary around particular 3 issues; and drafting law review articles, amicus 4 briefs, and other products which tell judges how to 5 decide a given case and provide ready-made argu-
6 ments for willing judges to adopt.

7 (6) Over the past decade, nonprofit organiza-
8 tions that do not disclose their donors have spent 9 hundreds of millions of dollars to influence the nomi-
10 nation and confirmation process for Federal judges.
11 One organization alone has spent nearly 12 $40,000,000 on advertisements supporting or oppos-13 ing Supreme Court nominees since 2016.

14 (7) Anonymous money spent on judicial nomi-
15 nations is not subject to any disclosure require-16 ments. Federal election laws only regulate contribu-17 tions and expenditures relating to electoral politics;
18 thus, expenditures, contributions, and advocacy ef-19 forts for Federal judgeships are not covered under 20 the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971. With-21 out more disclosure, the public has no way of know-22 ing whether the people spending money supporting 23 or opposing judicial nominations have business be-24 fore the courts.

1           (8) Congress and the American people have a 2           compelling interest in knowing who is funding these 3           campaigns to select and confirm judges to lifetime
4           appointments on the Federal bench.

5           (b) REPORTING.—Section 324 of the Federal Elec-
6           tion Campaign Act of 1971 (52 U.S.C. 30126), as amend-7           ed by section 201, is amended by redesignating subsection 8           (g) as subsection (h) and by inserting after subsection (f) 9           the following new subsection:

10          “(g) APPLICATION TO FEDERAL JUDICIAL NOMINA-
11          TIONS.—

12                 “(1) IN GENERAL.—For purposes of this sec-13                 tion—

14                         “(A) a disbursement by a covered organi-15                         zation for a Federal judicial nomination com-16                         munication shall be treated as a campaign-re-17                         lated disbursement; and 18                         “(B) in the case of campaign-related dis-19                         bursements which are for Federal judicial nomi-20                         nation communications—

21                                 “(i) the dollar amounts in paragraphs 22                                 (1) and (2) of subsection (a) shall be ap-23                                 plied separately with respect to such dis-24                                 bursements and other campaign-related 25                                 disbursements;

1           “(ii) the election reporting cycle shall 2           be the calendar year in which the disburse-
3           ment for the Federal judicial nomination
4           communication is made;

5           “(iii) references to a candidate in sub-6           sections (a)(2)(C), (a)(2)(D), and 7           (a)(3)(C) shall be treated as references to 8           a nominee for a Federal judge or justice;

9           “(iv) the reference to an election in 10          subsection (a)(2)(C) shall be treated as a 11          reference to the nomination of such nomi-
12          nee.

13          “(2) FEDERAL JUDICIAL NOMINATION COMMU-
14          NICATION.—

19                 cast, cable, or satellite, paid internet, or 20                 paid digital communication, paid pro-
21                 motion, newspaper, magazine, outdoor ad-
22                 vertising facility, mass mailing, telephone 23                 bank, telephone messaging effort of more 24                 than 500 substantially similar calls or elec-25                 tronic messages within a 30-day period, or

1 any other form of general public political 2 advertising; and

3 “(ii) which promotes, supports, at-
4 tacks, or opposes the nomination or Senate
5 confirmation of an individual as a Federal 6 judge or justice.

7 “(B) EXCEPTION.—Such term shall not in-8 clude any news story, commentary, or editorial 9 distributed through the facilities of any broad-10 casting station or any print, online, or digital 11 newspaper, magazine, publication, or periodical, 12 unless such facilities are owned or controlled by 13 any political party, political committee, or can-14 didate.

15 “(C) INTENT NOT REQUIRED.—A disburse-
16 ment for an item described in subparagraph (A) 17 shall be treated as a disbursement for a Federal 18 judicial nomination communication regardless 19 of the intent of the person making the disburse-20 ment.”.

21 SEC. 203. COORDINATION WITH FINCEN.

3 SEC. 302. JUDICIAL REVIEW OF ACTIONS RELATED TO CAM-
4 PAIGN FINANCE LAWS.

5 (a) IN GENERAL.—Title IV of the Federal Election 6 Campaign Act of 1971 (52 U.S.C. 30141 et seq.) is 7 amended by inserting after section 406 the following new 8 section:

9 “SEC. 407. JUDICIAL REVIEW.

10 “(a) IN GENERAL.—If any action is brought for de-11 claratory or injunctive relief to challenge, whether facially 12 or as-applied, the constitutionality or lawfulness of any 13 provision of this Act, including title V, or of chapter 95 14 or 96 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or is brought

4 “(3) It shall be the duty of the United States

8 greatest possible extent the disposition of the action 9 and appeal.

10 “(b) CLARIFYING SCOPE OF JURISDICTION.—If an 11 action at the time of its commencement is not subject to 12 subsection (a), but an amendment, counterclaim, cross-

2 sioner to the Congress) or Senate shall have the right to 3 intervene either in support of or opposition to the position 4 of a party to the case regarding the constitutionality of 5 the provision. To avoid duplication of efforts and reduce

8 the Commission, is of such short duration
