

119TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

H. R. 9093

To require a report regarding the scope of efforts by the People's Republic of China and Chinese Communist Party to utilize the Belt and Road Initiative to undermine the United States-led international world order and a detailed strategy regarding how the United States Government intends to counter such Initiative, and for other purposes.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JUNE 2, 2026

Mr. FITZGERALD (for himself and Mr. NUNN of Iowa) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs

A BILL

To require a report regarding the scope of efforts by the People's Republic of China and Chinese Communist Party to utilize the Belt and Road Initiative to undermine the United States-led international world order and a detailed strategy regarding how the United States Government intends to counter such Initiative, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

1 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

2 This Act may be cited as the “Build Responsible In-3 frastructure Development for the Global Economy Act” or 4 the “BRIDGE Act”.

5 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

6 Congress makes the following findings:

7 (1) The BRI, enshrined in the CCP’s constitu-
8 tion, is a comprehensive, long-term economic devel-9 opment strategy founded by General Secretary and 10 President Xi Jinping to link regions worldwide 11 through multibillion infrastructure projects. The 12 CCP utilizes the BRI’s informal framework as a ve-13 hicle to establish a Sinocentric world order based on 14 its authoritarian model of governance.

15 (2) The BRI poses immediate and long-term 16 risks to the national security, economic security, and 17 international influence of the United States and our 18 partners by giving the PRC the ability to project 19 power more widely in geostrategic regions such as 20 the Indo-Pacific. The BRI, covering countries rep-21 resenting over half of the world’s population and 22 over one-third of global economic output, seeks to 23 pull nations into China’s geopolitical orbit. In its 24 second decade, the BRI’s long-term risks have begun
25 to materialize in cases such as Sri Lanka’s
26 Hambantota Port debt restructuring and Pakistan’s

1 China-Pakistan Economic Corridor cost overruns,
2 while Italy's December 2023 withdrawal dem-
3 onstrates that allied coordination can reverse BRI
4 accession.

5 (3) Although the United States Government has 6 taken steps to respond to the BRI, including 7 through the Partnership for Global Infrastructure
8 and Investment, the reauthorization and expansion
9 of the United States International Development Fi-
10 nance Corporation under the DFC Modernization
11 and Reauthorization Act of 2025, and the America 12 First Investment Policy memorandum, the United 13 States has not yet articulated a single, integrated,
14 government-wide strategy to counter the BRI, leav-
15 ing Beijing room to leverage its regional inroads
16 worldwide through the BRI and other PRC-alter-17 native institutions to achieve global preeminence.

18 (4) The United States should not underestimate
19 the significance of the BRI and establish a coherent, 20 government-wide strategy that effectively seeks to 21 counter China's economic and political scope and in-22 fluence through the BRI.

23 SEC. 3. STATEMENT OF POLICY.

24 It is the policy of the United States to counter efforts 25 by the PRC and the CCP to create an integrated economic

1 and political order under its leadership, which continues
2 to threaten the national security, foreign policy, and econ-
3 omy of the United States.

4 SEC. 4. REPORT REGARDING THE SCOPE OF CERTAIN EF-
5 FORTS BY THE PEOPLE’S REPUBLIC OF 6 CHINA AND CHINESE COMMUNIST PARTY
7 WITH RESPECT TO THE BELT AND ROAD INI-
8 TIATIVE.

9 (a) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 180 days after the 10 date of the enactment of this Act, the Secretary of State, 11 in coordination with the Secretary of Commerce, the Chief
12 Executive Officer of the United States International De-13 velopment Finance Corporation, and the heads of any 14 other relevant Federal department or agency, shall submit 15 to the appropriate congressional committees a report that 16 includes the following:

17 (1) Information relating to the scope of efforts
18 by the PRC and CCP to utilize the BRI to under-19 mine the United States-led international world
20 order.

21 (2) Information relating to the means and ob-
22 jectives of the PRC and the CCP in using the BRI
23 as a vehicle to create a parallel order of alternative
24 PRC-centric organizations.

1 (3) An assessment of current United States
2 Government tools and strategies to counter the BRI.

3 (4) A detailed strategy regarding how the De-
4 partment of State, the United States International 5 Development Finance Corporation, and the Depart-
6 ment of Commerce intend to coordinate its resources
7 to counter the BRI, including the foreign assistance 8 functions formerly administered by the United 9 States Agency for International Development that 10 have been transferred to the Department of State.
11 Such strategy shall include the following:

12 (A) A description of interagency efforts to 13 counter the BRI, together with recommenda-
14 tions on how to bolster the United States Gov-
15 ernment's economic competition against China.

16 (B) An assessment of past efforts by the 17 United States Government to mitigate the ef-
18 fects of BRI, as well as the gaps in current 19 United States Government policy and imple-
20 mentation.

21 (C) A timeline that holds the United 22 States Government accountable in planning and 23 executing such strategy.

24 (D) A strategic roadmap that details how 25 the United States Government will link such

1 strategy to broader national security priorities
2 and objectives, including the National Security
3 Strategy and the National Defense Strategy.

4 (E) A description that elaborates how the 5 United States Government will align strategic 6 planning and coordination with key allies and 7 partners to effectively respond to the BRI, par-
8 ticularly in the Indo-Pacific.

9 (b) IMPLEMENTATION PLAN.—Not later than one
10 year after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Sec-
11 retary of State, in coordination with the Secretary of Com-
12 merce, the Chief Executive Officer of the United States
13 International Development Finance Corporation, and the 14 heads of any other relevant Federal department and agen-
15 cy, shall submit to the appropriate congressional commit-16 tees a plan for implementing the strategy described in sub-17 section (a)(4), including the following:

18 (1) A description of clearly defined program 19 metrics, goals, targets, and planned outcomes for 20 such strategy.

21 (2) A plan to monitor and evaluate such strat-
22 egy, and progress made toward achieving such goals,
23 targets, and planned outcomes.

24 (3) A plan to ensure such strategy is promoting 25 United States foreign policy goals in the Indo-Pa-

1 cific by offering a positive vision for shared economic 2 and infrastructure growth in a free and open inter-
3 national order.

4 (c) FORM.—The report required by subsection (a)
5 shall be submitted in unclassified form but may include
6 a classified annex if necessary. The unclassified portion 7 of such report shall be made available on a publicly avail-
8 able internet website of the Federal Government.

9 (d) APPROPRIATE CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEES
10 DEFINED.—In this section, the term “appropriate con-11 gressional committees” means—

12 (1) the Committee on Armed Services, the 13 Committee on Foreign Affairs, and the Committee
14 on Ways and Means of the House of Representa-15 tives; and

16 (2) the Committee on Armed Services, the 17 Committee on Foreign Relations, and the Committee
18 on Finance of the Senate.

19 SEC. 5. DEFINITIONS.

20 In this Act:

21 (1) BRI.—The term “BRI” means the Belt
22 and Road Initiative of the CCP.

23 (2) CCP.—The term “CCP” means the Chinese
24 Communist Party.

- 1 (3) CHINA; PRC.—The terms “China” and 2 “PRC” mean the People’s Republic of China.

