IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JUNE 11, 2026

Mr. MCGARVEY (for himself, Ms. DELAURO, Mr. GOMEZ, Ms. JACOBS, Ms. TLAIB, Ms. LEE of Pennsylvania, Ms. NORTON, Mrs. WATSON COLEMAN, and Ms. BONAMICI) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Education and Workforce

---

A BILL

To establish an independent Children’s Commission and position of Commissioner, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Child Safety and Well-5 Being Act of 2026”.

6 SEC. 2. DEFINITIONS.

7 In this Act:

1           (1) AGENCY.—The term “agency” has the 2 meaning given the term in section 551 of title 5, 3 United States Code.

4           (2) CHILD.—The term “child” means an indi-5 vidual from birth up to an age of 18 years.

6           (3) CHILDREN’S COMMISSIONER.—The term
7 “Children’s Commissioner” means the individual em-
8 ployed under section 3(e).

9           (4) CHILD IMPACT STATEMENT.—The term 10 “child impact statement” means an analysis and as-11 sessment of the direct and indirect outcomes that a 12 change in laws, policy, regulations, or Federal ap-13 propriations will have on children.

14           (5) COMMISSION.—The term “Commission”
15 means the Children’s Commission established by sec-16 tion 3(a).

17           (6) COMPTROLLER GENERAL.—The term
18 “Comptroller General” means the Comptroller Gen-
19 eral of the United States.

20           (7) MARGINALIZED YOUTH.—The term 21 “marginalized youth” means individuals who—

22                   (A) are not less than 13 years of age; and

23                   (B) experience systemic barriers in the 24 transition from adolescence to adulthood, in-25 cluding—

- 1 (i) children who have experienced dis-
2 crimination on the basis of race, ethnicity,
3 religion, disability status, sex (including 4 sexual orientation and gender identity), or 5 socioeconomic status;
- 6 (ii) current or former foster youth;
- 7 (iii) youth in the juvenile justice sys-
8 tem, residential treatment, or other sys-
9 tems of care;
- 10 (iv) homeless and runaway youth;
- 11 (v) children with disabilities;
- 12 (vi) victims of child exploitation and 13 child trafficking;
- 14 (vii) youth in troubled teen institu-15 tional settings; and
- 16 (viii) other youth identified by the 17 Children's Commissioner.

18 SEC. 3. ESTABLISHMENT OF COMMISSION.

19 (a) ESTABLISHMENT.—There is established the Chil-
20 dren's Commission.

21 (b) MEMBERSHIP.—

22 (1) NUMBER AND APPOINTMENT.—The Com-
23 mission shall be composed of 15 members appointed 24 by the Comptroller General, in consultation with the 25 Board on Children, Youth, and Families at the Na-

1 tional Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Med-
2 icine.

3 (2) QUALIFICATIONS.—

4 (A) IN GENERAL.—The membership of the 5 Commission shall include—

6 (i) individuals with national recogni-7 tion for their scholarship and expertise in 8 issues of importance to children and 9 marginalized youth;

10 (ii) individuals who work for nonprofit
11 organizations that advocate for children,
12 including organizations that protect chil-
13 dren’s civil rights;

14 (iii) individuals who work with
15 marginalized youth;

16 (iv) pediatricians, child psychologists,
17 developmental psychologists, and childhood
18 trauma experts;

19 (v) educators;

20 (vi) other experts who serve children
21 or administer State, Tribal, or local chil-
22 dren’s programs;

23 (vii) childcare providers; and

24 (viii) young people with relevant lived 25 experiences.

1 (B) VARIED BACKGROUNDS AND EXPERI-
2 ENCES.—The membership of the Commission
3 shall include—

4 (i) a mix of different professions,
5 broad geographic representation, a balance
6 between urban and rural representation, 7 and a mix of different racial and ethnic 8 representatives, to reflect the demographic 9 makeup of children and youth of the 10 United States; and

11 (ii) individuals and service providers
12 with specific expertise or significant experi-
13 ence in delivering culturally appropriate,
14 trauma-informed, and responsive services
15 for children and youth.

16 (C) MAJORITY NONPROVIDERS.—The 17 Comptroller General shall ensure individuals 18 who are directly involved in the provision or 19 management of the delivery of services to chil-20 dren shall not constitute a majority of the 21 membership of the Commission.

22 (D) ETHICAL DISCLOSURE.—

23 (i) IN GENERAL.—The Comptroller
24 General shall establish a system for public
25 disclosure by members of the Commission

1 of financial and other potential conflicts of 2 interest related to those members.

3 (ii) FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE REQUIRE-
4 MENTS.—A member of the Commission
5 shall be deemed to be an individual de-
6 scribed in section 13103(f) of title 5,
7 United States Code, and shall be subject to 8 the requirements of subchapter I of chap-
9 ter 131 of such title.

10 (E) RECOMMENDATIONS.—Not later than 11 60 days after the date of enactment of this Act, 12 the Comptroller General shall establish a proc-
13 ess for recommending qualified and interested
14 individuals for the Commission in order to set 15 up an ongoing pool of qualified individuals for 16 nomination to the Commission.

17 (3) DATE OF APPOINTMENT.—The Comptroller
18 General shall appoint members of the Commission
19 not later than 120 days after the date of enactment 20 of this Act and immediately notify the Committee of 21 Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions of the Sen-
22 ate and the Committee of Education and the Work-
23 force of the House of Representatives of the appoint-24 ments.

1           (4) CHAIR AND VICE CHAIR.—The Commission
2 shall designate by majority vote a Chair and Vice 3 Chair from among the members of the Commission,
4 each of whom shall serve in such positions of Chair
5 and Vice Chair for a period of 1 year.

6           (c) TERMS; VACANCIES.—

7           (1) TERMS.—The terms of the members of the 8 Commission shall be 3 years, except that the Comp-9 troller General shall designate staggered terms for 10 the members first appointed.

11           (2) VACANCIES.—

12           (A) IN GENERAL.—A vacancy on the Com-13 mission shall be filled in the manner in which 14 the original appointment was made, as de-
15 scribed in subsection (b), and shall be subject 16 to any conditions that applied with respect to 17 the original appointment.

18           (B) FILLING UNEXPIRED TERM.—An indi-
19 vidual chosen to fill a vacancy shall be ap-20 pointed for the unexpired term of the member 21 replaced, including an individual chosen to fill a 22 vacancy in the position of Chair or Vice Chair.

23           (d) MEETINGS.—

24           (1) INITIAL MEETING.—Not later than 60 days
25 after the date on which all members of the Commis-

1       sion have been appointed, the Commission shall hold 2       the first meeting of the Commission.

3               (2) FREQUENCY.—The Commission shall meet
4       at the call of the Children’s Commissioner not less 5       frequently than 4 times per year, with not fewer 6       than 1 meeting focusing on children’s voices.

7               (3) CHILDREN’S PERSPECTIVES.—The Commis-
8       sion should seek to incorporate children’s perspec-
9       tives in each meeting of the Commission.

10              (4) QUORUM.—A majority of the members of 11       the Commission shall constitute a quorum, but a 12       lesser number of members may hold hearings.

13       (e) CHILDREN’S COMMISSIONER.—

14              (1) IN GENERAL.—

15                      (A) IN GENERAL.—The Commission shall 16       employ and fix the compensation of a Children’s 17       Commissioner, who shall serve as executive di-18       rector of the Commission, without regard to the 19       provisions of title 5, United States Code, gov-20       erning appointments in the competitive service.

21                      (B) RESTRICTIONS ON EMPLOYMENT.—An 22       individual may only be employed as the Chil-
23       dren’s Commissioner if the individual—

24                              (i) was not employed by, and did not 25       receive compensation from, a for-profit en-

1 tity during the 2-year period preceding the 2 appointment; and

3 (ii) is an individual described in any 4 of clauses (i) through (viii) of subsection
5 (b)(2)(A).

6 (C) DUTIES.—The Children’s Commis-
7 sioner shall carry out the following duties:

8 (i) Solicit applications to fill a vacancy
9 or prospective vacancy in the membership 10 of the Commission with sufficient time for 11 qualified individuals to apply.

12 (ii) Consult with organizations that 13 have a special interest in the functions of 14 the Commission.

15 (D) ETHICAL DISCLOSURE.—

16 (i) IN GENERAL.—The Comptroller
17 General shall establish a system for public
18 disclosure by the Children’s Commissioner
19 of financial and other potential conflicts of 20 interest related to the Children’s Commis-
21 sioner.

22 (ii) FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE REQUIRE-
23 MENTS.—The Children’s Commissioner
24 shall be deemed to be an individual de-
25 scribed in section 13103(f) of title 5,

1 United States Code, and shall be subject to
2 the requirements of subchapter I of chap-
3 ter 131 of such title.

4 (2) TERM.—

5 (A) IN GENERAL.—The term of the Chil-
6 dren’s Commissioner shall be 5 years, beginning 7 on the date on which the Commission employs 8 the Children’s Commissioner.

9 (B) SUBSEQUENT TERMS.—Each subse-
10 quent term of a Children’s Commissioner shall 11 begin on the day after the date on which the 12 previous term expires or the date on which the 13 Commission employs the Commissioner, which-14 ever is later.

15 (C) LIMITATION.—An individual may not
16 serve more than 2 terms as the Children’s Com-17 missioner.

18 (3) EXPERTS AND CONSULTANTS.—Subject to 19 such review as the Comptroller General determines 20 necessary to ensure the efficient administration of 21 the Commission, the Children’s Commissioner 22 may—

23 (A) seek such assistance and support as 24 may be required in the performance of its du-

1           ties from appropriate Federal and State depart-
2           ments and agencies;

3           (B) enter into contracts or make other ar-
4           rangements, as may be necessary for the con-
5           duct of the work of the Commission, without re-
6           gard to section 6101 of title 41, United States
7           Code;

8           (C) make advance, progress, and other
9           payments which relate to the work of the Com-10          mission;

11          (D) provide transportation and subsistence
12          for persons serving without compensation;

13          (E) prescribe such rules and regulations as 14          the Children's Commissioner determines nec-
15          essary with respect to the internal organization
16          and operation of the Commission;

17          (F) reach out directly to children and child 18          advocates to understand their concerns and 19          needs; and

20          (G) speak out on matters of importance to 21          children and marginalized youth and help facili-
22          tate their voice in policy discussions at the Fed-
23          eral and State levels involving their concerns, 24          needs, and future.

1 SEC. 4. DUTIES OF COMMISSION.

2 (a) IN GENERAL.—The Commission shall—

3 (1) promote awareness of the views and inter-4 ests of children and marginalized youth in the 5 United States;

6 (2) receive and review complaints against agen-
7 cies relating to how the agencies are serving chil-
8 dren, and serve as a central location for the receipt 9 of any complaint, criticism, or suggestion concerning 10 the policies and activities of governmental entities or 11 other institutions or agencies that affect child well-12 being;

13 (3) incorporate varied backgrounds and experi-14 ences of children in the United States and work to 15 include perspectives and analysis for children across 16 racial, ethnic, religious, sex, and geographic bound-
17 aries and socioeconomic, immigration, and disability
18 statuses in the work of the Commission;

19 (4) advocate for child well-being in the United 20 States and consider child well-being in Federal legis-21 lation, regulatory actions, and policy;

22 (5) examine the way Federal legislation, regu-
23 latory actions, and policy affect marginalized youth 24 and how children and marginalized youth transition 25 into adulthood;

1           (6) advise Congress, agencies, and States on 2 the views and interests of children and marginalized 3 youth on policies impacting child well-being;

4           (7) develop proposals for changes in the policies 5 and activities of agencies that will better ensure the 6 well-being of all children;

7           (8) research or consider any other matter relat-
8 ing to the interests of children and marginalized 9 youth;

10          (9) publish reports on matters researched or 11 considered under this section;

12          (10) monitor the development and application
13 of Federal, State, and local laws, regulations, orders, 14 and guidance affecting children;

15          (11) represent the views and interests of chil-
16 dren, including marginalized youth, before Congress
17 and agencies whose regulatory actions and policies 18 and activities may impact children;

19          (12) enlist the cooperation and assistance of 20 Federal, State, or public agencies, businesses, and 21 other organizations in disseminating information in 22 an accessible format about the programs and serv-
23 ices provided by the Federal Government that ben-24 efit children;

1           (13) encourage agencies and policymakers en-
2 engaged in activities affecting children to take account 3 of the views and interests of children;

4           (14) promote greater civic participation in 5 United States by children and marginalized youth 6 and empower those voices in public policy;

7           (15) recommend specific measures for creating 8 an environment in which all children will have the 9 opportunity to thrive and reach their full potential 10 and to ascertain the common reasons, if any, that 11 prevent children from thriving;

12           (16) coordinate and share information and data 13 with commissioners and ombudsmen for children in 14 State and local governments that is disaggregated, if 15 at all possible, along racial, ethnic, sex, disability, 16 and socioeconomic status;

17           (17) examine international issues impacting 18 children domestically and abroad and collaborate, 19 and if appropriate coordinate, with children's com-20 missioners in other countries; and

21           (18) make such other recommendations as may 22 be appropriate to assist the development and 23 strengthening of child well-being.

1 (b) CONSIDERATIONS.—In carrying out the duties
2 under this section, the Commission shall consider the 3 views and interests of children relating to—

4 (1) the physical and mental health and emo-
5 tional well-being of children;

6 (2) prevention and treatment from or due to 7 child abuse and neglect;

8 (3) early childhood, K–12 education, higher 9 education, and workforce development;

10 (4) the social and economic well-being of chil-
11 dren;

12 (5) the ways social determinants and other in-13 equities impact the health and well-being of children; 14 and

15 (6) the contribution made by children to soci-16 ety.

17 (c) COMMENTS ON AGENCY REPORTS.—If an agency
18 submits to Congress or a committee of Congress a report 19 that is required by law and relates to child well-being—

20 (1) the agency shall transmit a copy of the re-21 port to the Commission; and

22 (2) the Commission may submit to the appro-
23 priate committees of Congress and the agency writ-24 ten comments on the report, which may include such

1 recommendations as the Commission determines ap-
2 propriate.

3 (d) REVIEW OF REGULATIONS.—The Commission
4 shall review Federal regulations, orders, guidance, or other 5 directives and may provide written comment to appro-
6 priate committees of Congress and the appropriate agen-
7 cies on any such matter that impacts child well-being.

8 (e) PUBLICLY AVAILABLE.—The Commission shall 9 make any reports issued by the Commission publicly avail-
10 able on the website of the Commission so that children, 11 parents, providers, policymakers, and the general public
12 have access to the findings of the Commission.

13 (f) ACCESSIBILITY FOR CHILDREN.—If the Commis-
14 sion publishes a report or makes a comment or rec-15 ommendation under this section, the Commission shall, if 16 and to the extent the Commission considers appropriate, 17 publish an alternative version using language that is ap-
18 propriate for children.

19 (g) STUDY ON CHILD IMPACT STATEMENTS.—Not 20 later than 180 days after all members of the Commission 21 are appointed, the Commission shall conduct a study and 22 report to Congress on the feasibility for agencies to create 23 child impact statements.

24 (h) REPORT ON RECOMMENDATIONS.—The Commis-25 sion shall review the recommendations from the National

1 Bipartisan Commission on Children, the National Com-2 mission on Children and Disasters, the Commission to 3 Eliminate Child Abuse and Neglect Fatalities, the Com-
4 mission on Native Children, and other relevant congress-5 sionally authorized commissions and annually report to 6 Congress on the status of those recommendations.

7 (i) CONSULTATION.—In carrying out the duties
8 under this section, the Commission shall consult with, as 9 appropriate—

10 (1) children representative of racial and eth-
11 nically diverse backgrounds and different back-12 grounds based on sex (including sexual orientation 13 and gender identity), disability, immigration, and so-14 cioeconomic status, including marginalized youth;

15 (2) the committees of Congress that have juris-
16 diction over children’s issues;

17 (3) agencies working on issues impacting child 18 well-being;

19 (4) States (including the District of Columbia 20 and any territory or possession of the United 21 States), and Indian Tribes and Tribal organizations 22 (as defined in section 4 of the Indian Self-Deter-23 mination and Education Assistance Act (25 U.S.C.
24 5304));

1           (5) nonprofit organizations advocating for and 2           providing services to children;

3           (6) international organizations and agencies 4           working on issues related to child well-being;

5           (7) civil rights and disability rights organiza-
6           tions that work on children's issues;

7           (8) schools and childcare centers; and 8           (9) such other organizations, agencies, or per-9           sons as the Commission considers appropriate.

10 SEC. 5. POWERS OF COMMISSION.

11           (a) HEARINGS.—The Commission may hold such 12           hearings, sit and act at such times and places, take such 13           testimony, and receive such evidence as the Commission 14           considers advisable to carry out this Act.

15           (b) INFORMATION FROM AGENCIES.—

16           (1) IN GENERAL.—The Commission may secure 17           directly from a Federal department or agency such 18           information as the Commission considers necessary
19           to carry out this Act.

20           (2) FURNISHING INFORMATION.—On request of 21           the Chairperson of the Commission, the head of the 22           department or agency shall furnish the information
23           to the Commission.

24           (c) DATA COLLECTION.—In order to carry out its du-25           ties and functions, the Commission shall—

1           (1) utilize existing information, both published 2           and unpublished, where possible, collected and as-3           sessed either by its own staff or under other ar-
4           rangements made in accordance with this Act;

5           (2) carry out, or award grants or contracts for,
6           original research, where existing information is inad-7           equate; and

8           (3) adopt procedures allowing any interested
9           party to submit information for use by the Commis-
10          sion in making reports and recommendations.

11          (d) ACCESS OF GAO TO INFORMATION.—The Comp-
12          troller General shall have unrestricted access to all delib-
13          erations, records, and nonproprietary data of the Commis-14          sion, upon request.

15          (e) PERIODIC AUDIT.—The Commission shall be sub-
16          ject to periodic audit by the Comptroller General.

17          (f) AMICUS CURIAE.—

18           (1) IN GENERAL.—The Children’s Commis-
19           sioner may appear as amicus curiae in any action 20           brought in a court of the United States to review an 21           agency rule or guidance to present the views of the 22           Commission on the effect of the rule or guidance on 23           children.

24           (2) GRANTING APPEARANCE.—A court of the 25           United States shall grant the application of the Chil-

1       dren’s Commissioner to appear in any such action
2       for the purpose described in paragraph (1).

3       (g) POSTAL SERVICES.—The Commission may use 4       the United States mails in the same manner and under 5       the same conditions as other departments and agencies of 6       the Federal Government.

7       (h) GIFTS.—The Commission may accept, use, and 8       dispose of gifts or donations of services or property.

9       SEC. 6. COMMISSION PERSONNEL MATTERS.

10       (a) COMPENSATION OF MEMBERS.—A member of the 11       Commission who is not an officer or employee of the Fed-12       eral Government shall be compensated at a rate equal to 13       the daily equivalent of the annual rate of basic pay pre-14       scribed for level IV of the Executive Schedule under sec-15       tion 5315 of title 5, United States Code, for each day (in-16       cluding travel time) during which the member is engaged 17       in the performance of the duties of the Commission.

18       (b) TRAVEL EXPENSES.—A member of the Commis-
19       sion shall be allowed travel expenses, including per diem 20       in lieu of subsistence, at rates authorized for employees
21       of agencies under subchapter I of chapter 57 of title 5, 22       United States Code, while away from their homes or reg-23       ular places of business in the performance of services for 24       the Commission.

25       (c) STAFF.—

1           (1) IN GENERAL.—The Children’s Commis-
2           sioner may, without regard to the provisions of title 3           5, United States Code, governing appointments in 4           the competitive service, appoint and terminate such 5           other additional personnel as may be necessary to 6           enable the Commission to perform its duties.

7           (2) DIRECTOR OF CHILDREN AND YOUTH OUT-
8           REACH AND ENGAGEMENT.—The Children’s Com-9           missioner shall without regard to the provisions of 10          title 5, United States Code, governing appointments 11          in the competitive service, appoint a Director of 12          Children and Youth Outreach and Engagement to 13          help coordinate with, provide technical support to,
14          and work with staff of the Commission to regularly 15          incorporate the voices of children and youth in car-16          rying out the duties and consultation directives of 17          the Commission.

18          (3) COMPENSATION.—The Children’s Commis-
19          sioner may fix the compensation of personnel ap-20          pointed under this subsection without regard to 21          chapter 51 and subchapter III of chapter 53 of title
