IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JUNE 22, 2026

Mr. FITZGERALD introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Energy and Commerce, and in addition to the Committee on the Judiciary, for a period to be subsequently determined by the Speaker, in each case for consideration of such provisions as fall within the jurisdiction of the committee concerned

A BILL

To prohibit entities integral to the national interests of the United States from participating in any foreign sustainability due diligence regulation, including the Corporate Sustainability Due Diligence Directive of the European Union, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Prevent Regulatory 5 Overreach from Turning Essential Companies into Tar-
6 gets Act of 2026” or the “PROTECT USA Act of 2026”.

1 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

2 Congress finds the following:

3 (1) The ability of citizens of the United States
4 to engage in international commerce is a funda-
5 mental concern of the policy of the United States.

6 (2) Entities in the extractive and manufac-
7 turing sectors contribute significantly to the pros-
8 perity of the United States and the growth of the 9 world economy.

10 (3) Maintaining and, in some cases, increasing 11 access to certain supplies and materials from the ex-
12 tractive sector, including agriculture, energy, mining,
13 and timber, and access to materials from the manu-
14 facturing sector, are critically important for pro-
15 moting economic development and human progress
16 in the United States and around the world.

17 (4) Restrictions, particularly restrictions adopt-
18 ed unilaterally by foreign countries that are substan-
19 tially different from restrictions applied by the 20 United States, that unreasonably hinder the ability 21 of entities integral to the national interests of the 22 United States to pursue their commercial activities
23 can have serious adverse effects on employment, eco-
24 nomic stability, scientific progress, and international 25 trade, with the potential to impede domestic and for-
26 eign policy goals.

1 (5) Maintaining a robust United States energy
2 supply is essential to the continued growth of the 3 physical infrastructure supporting domestic ad-
4 vanced technologies, including data centers and com-
5 puting hubs, and that foreign sustainability regimes
6 with extraterritorial scope pose significant risks to 7 United States competitiveness and innovation.

15 (B) EXCEPTION.—The term “foreign sus-
16 tainability due diligence regulation” does not 17 apply to any law, regulation, or other legal in-18 strument that is substantively similar to a law, 19 regulation, or other legal instrument that has 20 been adopted or approved by an Act of Con-
21 gress.

22 (C) INCLUSION OF CORPORATE SUSTAIN-
23 ABILITY DUE DILIGENCE DIRECTIVE.—The

25 lation” includes—

11 TAINABILITY DUE DILIGENCE REGULATIONS.

18 dertaking actions that it may lawfully take—

19 (1) to comply with a statute of the United 20 States; or

21 (2) in the ordinary course of business, including
22 in response to an information request from a con-
23 sumer or an investor.

24 (c) HARDSHIP RELIEF PROCESS.—

1 (1) PETITION FOR RELIEF.—Any entity inte-

22 United States;

23 (ii) includes an explanation to support
24 such basis; and

1 (iii) describes any condition the entity
2 could meet such that the petition would be 3 granted.

4 (3) FACTORS TO BE CONSIDERED.—In deciding
5 under paragraph (2)(B) whether to deny a petition 6 from an entity submitted under paragraph (1), the 7 President shall consider the following:

8 (A) The extent to which denying the peti-
9 tion would result in the inability of the relevant

11 with products essential for domestic use in the 12 United States.

13 (B) Possible adverse effects on the econ-
14 omy in any locality or region of the United

16 ment.

17 (C) The degree to which granting the peti-
18 tion would impact, directly or indirectly, the 19 United States.

20 (D) The extent to which denying the peti-
