2D SESSION

H. RES. 1356

A resolution commemorating the Day of Portugal, Camões, and the Portuguese Communities, and for other purposes.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JUNE 10, 2026

Mr. COSTA (for himself, Mr. VALADAO, Mr. KEATING, and Mrs. TRAHAN) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs

RESOLUTION

A resolution commemorating the Day of Portugal, Camões, and the Portuguese Communities, and for other purposes.

Whereas Luís Vaz de Camões is considered one of Portugal's greatest literary figures;

Whereas Camões is revered for his transformational influence on the Portuguese language, similar to that of Shakespeare in the English language;

Whereas the tenth of June honors the legacy of the poet Luís Vaz de Camões;

Whereas every tenth of June the Portuguese celebrate their national holiday known as the Day of Portugal, Camões, and the Portuguese Communities (known colloquially as the Day of Portugal, or Portugal Day);

Whereas the Day of Portugal has been celebrated for decades in Portuguese-American communities throughout the United States, including those in California, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, and New Jersey;

Whereas the Day of Portugal is a celebration of Portuguese heritage and culture commemorated throughout the Portuguese communities around the world;

Whereas the United States has a rich history of cultural diversity and appreciation, including that of the 1,300,000 Portuguese Americans and descendants living in the United States today;

Whereas Portugal was the first neutral nation to establish diplomatic ties with the United States;

Whereas through signing of a formal memorandum of understanding, the Embassy of Portugal in Washington, DC is officially part of the America250 celebration marking 250 years of United States independence; and

Whereas the relationship between Portugal and the United States is one of deep friendship and steadfast alliance: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That the House of Representatives—

2 (1) recognizes and commemorates the Day of
3 Portugal, Camões, and the Portuguese Communities;

4 (2) recognizes and honors the contributions of
5 Portuguese Americans to society; and
