

119TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. RES. 809

Expressing support for the designation of the second Monday in October 2025 as “Indigenous Peoples’ Day” to celebrate and honor Indigenous Peoples and their shared history and culture.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

OCTOBER 14, 2025

Mrs. TORRES of California (for herself, Mr. COLE, and Ms. DAVIDS of Kansas) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Natural Resources

RESOLUTION

Expressing support for the designation of the second Monday in October 2025 as “Indigenous Peoples’ Day” to celebrate and honor Indigenous Peoples and their shared history and culture.

Whereas currently over 200 municipalities and 17 States celebrate “Indigenous Peoples’ Day” on the second Monday of October;

Whereas Columbus Day is a Federal holiday, established by order of President Roosevelt in 1937, and is officially recognized by some cities and States around the country on the second Monday of October;

Whereas Columbus Day does not currently provide an opportunity to reflect on the stories and perseverance of the Indigenous People of lands that are now part of the United States;

Whereas, prior to Western contact, Indigenous Peoples lived and flourished in the lands that are now part of the United States for thousands of years;

Whereas the Western contact of the lands that are now part of the United States led to the suppression, forced assimilation, and genocide of Indigenous Peoples and their cultures;

Whereas the House of Representatives recognizes and values the vast contributions made to the United States by Indigenous Peoples' knowledge, science, philosophy, arts, and culture;

Whereas the House of Representatives recognizes its responsibility to honor the history, traditions, and cultural contributions of the Indigenous Peoples of the United States; and

Whereas the second Monday in October would be an appropriate date to designate as "Indigenous Peoples' Day":
Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That the House of Representatives—

2 (1) honors and recognizes the unique contribu-
3 tions Indigenous Peoples have made to the United
4 States of America;

5 (2) encourages the people of the United States
6 to observe "Indigenous Peoples' Day" with appro-
7 priate ceremonies and activities that celebrate and
8 promote awareness of Indigenous Peoples and their
9 shared history and culture; and

- 1 (3) supports the designation of “Indigenous
- 2 Peoples’ Day” as a Federal holiday.
