Condemning the Government of Ethiopia for actions that threaten regional stability, violate fundamental human rights, and undermine the strategic interests of the United States in the Horn of Africa.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Whereas the United States has a strategic interest in promoting peace, security, and good governance in the Horn of Africa;

Whereas the Government of Ethiopia has waged war in the Amhara region, while violence continues to grip Oromia, Afar, Tigray, Ogaden, and other areas, resulting in the loss of life, widespread destruction of property, destabilization of the region, exacerbation of ethnic and religious tensions, and the escalation of conflict-driven famine and mass displacement;

Whereas reports from credible international and humanitarian organizations indicate that parties aligned with the Ethiopian Government have perpetrated gross violations of internationally recognized human rights, including acts of war crimes, crimes against humanity, and genocide;

Whereas the Ethiopian Orthodox Church and other religious institutions have been targeted by violence, intimidation, and persecution, undermining religious freedom and the stability of Ethiopian civil society;

Whereas prolonged instability in Ethiopia has created a power vacuum that may be exploited by terrorist networks, authoritarian regimes, and other foreign adversaries hostile to United States interests; and

Whereas United States taxpayer dollars should not support regimes or entities engaged in systemic human rights abuses or religious persecution: Now, therefore, be it
