

119TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. 1542

To support the human rights of Uyghurs and members of other minority groups residing primarily in the Xinjiang Uyghur Autonomous Region, to safeguard their distinct identity, and for other purposes.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

APRIL 30, 2025

Mr. CURTIS introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations

A BILL

To support the human rights of Uyghurs and members of other minority groups residing primarily in the Xinjiang Uyghur Autonomous Region, to safeguard their distinct identity, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Uyghur Policy Act of 5 2025”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 Congress finds the following:

1 (1) The People’s Republic of China (referred to 2 in this Act as the “PRC”) continues to repress the 3 distinct Islamic, Turkic identity of Uyghurs and 4 members of other ethnic and religious minority
5 groups in the Xinjiang Uyghur Autonomous Region
6 (referred to in this Act as the “XUAR”) in north-7 western China and other areas in which they have 8 habitually resided.

9 (2) Uyghurs and other predominantly Muslim
10 ethnic minorities historically making up the majority 11 of the XUAR population have maintained a distinct 12 religious and cultural identity throughout their his-13 tory.

14 (3) Human rights, including the freedom of re-
15 ligion or belief, and respect for the Uyghurs’ unique 16 Muslim identity are legitimate interests of the inter-17 national community.

18 (4) The PRC—

19 (A) has ratified the International Covenant
20 on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, done
21 at New York December 16, 1966, and is there-22 by bound by its provisions; and

23 (B) has also signed the International Cov-24 enant on Civil and Political Rights, done at 25 New York December 19, 1966.

1 (5) An official campaign to encourage Han Chi-
2 nese migration into the XUAR has placed immense
3 pressure on Uyghurs and other ethnic and religious 4 minority groups who seek to preserve their unique 5 ethnic, cultural, religious, and linguistic traditions.

6 (6) PRC authorities have supported an influx of 7 Han Chinese economic immigrants into the XUAR, 8 implemented discrimination against Uyghurs and 9 other minorities in hiring practices, and provided un-10 equal access to healthcare services.

11 (7) PRC authorities have manipulated the stra-12 tegic objectives of the international war on terror to 13 mask their increasing cultural and religious oppres-
14 sion of the Muslim population residing in the 15 XUAR.

16 (8) In 2014, following unrest in the XUAR, 17 Chinese authorities launched the “Strike Hard 18 Against Violent Extremism” campaign, in which du-19 bious allegations of widespread extremist activity
20 were used as justification for gross human rights
21 violations committed against Uyghurs and members 22 of other minority communities in the XUAR.

23 (9) PRC authorities have made use of the legal 24 system as a tool of repression, including for the im-25 position of arbitrary detentions and torture against

1 members of the Uyghur community and other mi-
2 nority populations.

3 (10) Uyghurs and Kazakhs who have secured 4 citizenship or permanent residency outside of the 5 PRC have attested to repeated threats, harassment, 6 and surveillance by PRC officials.

7 (11) Reporting from international news organi-
8 zations has found that during the past decade, fam-
9 ily members of Uyghurs and other minority groups 10 living outside of the PRC have gone missing or been 11 detained to force Uyghur expatriates to return to 12 the PRC or silence their dissent.

13 (12) In 2017, Radio Free Asia’s Uyghur Serv-14 ice was the first media organization to report on the 15 PRC’s vast, mass arbitrary-detention program in the 16 XUAR.

17 (13) Credible evidence from human rights orga-18 nizations, think tanks, and journalists confirms that 19 more than 1,000,000 Uyghurs and members of other 20 ethnic minority groups have been imprisoned in 21 extrajudicial “political reeducation” centers.

22 (14) Independent accounts from former detain-23 ees of “political reeducation” centers describe inhu-
24 mane conditions and treatment including forced po-

1 litical indoctrination, torture, beatings, rape, forced 2 sterilization, and food deprivation.

3 (15) Former detainees also confirmed that they 4 were told by guards that the only way to secure re-5 lease was to demonstrate sufficient political loyalty
6 to the Government of the PRC.

7 (16) Popular discourse surrounding the ongoing 8 atrocities in the XUAR and advocacy efforts to as-9 sist Uyghurs remains muted in most Muslim major-10 ity nations around the world.

11 (17) Former Secretaries of State Antony
12 Blinken and Michael Pompeo and Secretary of State
13 Marco Rubio have all confirmed that the Govern-14 ment of the PRC has committed genocide and 15 crimes against humanity against Uyghurs and other 16 ethnic and religious minorities in the XUAR.

17 (18) Government bodies of multiple countries
18 have also declared that atrocities by the Government
19 of the PRC against such populations in the XUAR 20 constitute genocide, including the Parliament of the 21 United Kingdom, of Belgium, of Czechia, of Lith-22 uania, of the Netherlands, and of Canada.

23 SEC. 3. SENSE OF CONGRESS.

24 It is the sense of Congress that—

1 (1) the Government of the PRC should imme-
2 diately open the XUAR to regular, transparent, and 3 unmanipulated visits by—

4 (A) members of the press;

5 (B) international organizations, including 6 the Office of the United Nations High Commis-
7 sioner for Human Rights;

8 (C) academic and human rights research 9 institutions; and

10 (D) foreign delegations, including delega-
11 tions from the Congress of the United States;

12 (2) the Government of the PRC should—

13 (A) recognize, and take tangible steps to 14 protect and preserve, the distinct ethnic, cul-15 tural, religious, and linguistic identity of 16 Uyghurs and members of other ethnic and reli-
17 gious minority groups in the XUAR;

18 (B) cease all government-sponsored crack-
19 downs, imprisonments, and detentions of people
20 throughout the XUAR aimed at repressing
21 their ethnic, cultural, political, or religious iden-22 tities; and

23 (C) cease all government-sponsored 24 transnational repression of Uyghurs, including 25 the detainment, harassment, intimidation, and

1 surveillance of the family members of exiled
2 Uyghurs and Uyghur activists;

3 (3) it is commendable that countries, including 4 Turkey, Albania, and Germany, have provided shel-
5 ter and hospitality to Uyghurs and other minority 6 group members in exile from the PRC;

7 (4) urges all countries, especially fellow democ-
8 racies and countries with sizeable Muslim popu-9 lations, to condemn and address the plight of 10 Uyghurs and other minority communities in the 11 XUAR;

12 (5) the Government of the PRC should imme-
13 diately grant unconditional releases to all prisoners
14 that have been detained for their ethnic, cultural, re-15 ligious, and linguistic identities, for expressing their 16 political or religious beliefs in the XUAR, or for 17 being related to members of the Uyghur diaspora or 18 activist community, including—

19 (A) Ekper Asat, who participated in the 20 Department of State’s International Visitors
21 Leadership Program in 2016, was incarcerated
22 after returning to the XUAR, and is now serv-23 ing a 15-year prison sentence on charges of “in-24 citing ethnic hatred and ethnic discrimination”;

1 (B) Dr. Gulshan Abbas, a Uyghur retired 2 medical doctor who was wrongfully detained in 3 the XUAR on September 11, 2018, and un-
4 justly sentenced to 20 years in prison in retalia-
5 tion for her sister’s advocacy for Uyghur 6 human rights issues; and

7 (C) Kamile Wayit, a Uyghur university
8 student who was wrongfully detained on De-
9 cember 12, 2022, after returning to the XUAR 10 during the winter holiday while on break from 11 studying;

12 (6) the Government of the PRC should facili-13 tate access for international humanitarian organiza-
14 tions, including the International Federation of Red 15 Cross and Red Crescent Societies, to the “political 16 reeducation” centers in the XUAR to ensure pris-17 oners are not being mistreated and are receiving 18 necessary medical care; and 19 (7) the Department of State should continue to 20 facilitate the unhindered dissemination to the inter-21 national community of information regarding the 22 human rights, religious freedom, and transnational 23 repression of Uyghurs and members of other minor-24 ity groups in the XUAR.
