6 those law enforcement officers who have died in the 7 line of duty, educating the public about the impor-
8 tant role of law enforcement in a democratic society
9 and working to reduce the number of line-of-duty
10 deaths and injuries among law enforcement officers;

11 (2) it is in the national interest to ensure that 12 the unique education and outreach programs of the 13 National Law Enforcement Museum be maintained
14 and enhanced;

19 establish a National Law Enforcement Heroes Me-
20 morial in Washington, DC;

21 (4) dedicated on October 15, 1991, the Na-

23 Federal, Tribal, State, and local law enforcement of-24 ficers who have made the ultimate sacrifice for the

1 safety and protection of the United States and the 2 people of the United States;

3 (5) the National Law Enforcement Officers Me-
4 morial is centered in the 400 block of E Street NW,
5 in Washington, DC, and is the national monument
6 to law enforcement officers who have died in the line
7 of duty;

8 (6) the National Law Enforcement Officers Me-
9 morial was built entirely with private funds;

10 (7) in 2000, Congress passed and President
11 William J. Clinton signed into law the National Law
12 Enforcement Museum Act (Public Law 106–492;
13 114 Stat. 2210), which authorized the National Law
14 Enforcement Officers Memorial Fund, Inc., to build
15 and operate the National Law Enforcement Museum
16 on Federal land in the District of Columbia to honor
17 and commemorate the service and sacrifice of law
18 enforcement officers in the United States;

9 tween past and present with respect to law en-
10 forcement, between the heroes of yesteryear and 11 those who have followed in their footsteps, and 12 between the peace officers of the United States
13 and the public they serve;

14 (C) to increase public understanding and 15 support for law enforcement; and

2 have made to serve in that role;

3 (13) the community education and outreach
4 programs, activities, and special exhibits within the 5 National Law Enforcement Museum—

6 (A) help bring local law enforcement agen-
7 cies closer to the communities they serve; and

8 (B) help to foster a better understanding
9 between law enforcement officers and commu-
10 nities;

11 (14) the officer safety and wellness education

19 with education concerning the sacrifices made;
20 and

21 (C) are vitally important at a time when

1 (A) a number of law enforcement agencies
2 remain understaffed and many law enforcement

11 enforcement, which will enhance public appre-
12 ciation of law enforcement; and

13 (B) to improve the safety and wellness of 14 officers who serve communities across the 15 United States;
